

Lions have that Fridays feeling

N-ICE ONE: Paul O'Neill, James Hatfull, Deryk Beeson and Simon Seaton (c)

LEE Valley Lions have announced a new team sponsor after tying up a new deal with law firm, Fridays.

The company specialise in residential property conveyancing and was co-founded by Simon Seaton in 2004.

Lions' assistant captain Paul O'Neill is an estate agent and it is through his association that Fridays have become involved with the team.

O'Neill and Captain James Hatfull joined Lions' Manager Deryk Beeson at the Lee Valley Ice Centre on Thursday as Fridays' founder Seaton handed over his company's sponsorship cheque for £500.

The company received a replica shirt as acknowledgement. Beeson said: "It's fantastic to have Fridays on board.

"Their sponsorship and interest in the team is greatly appreciated.

"We hope to build on our relationship with Simon and his colleagues over the course of the season."
