

DERBY DATE: Romford's David Dunnage (16) tries to shut down a Lee Valley rival (above), while Robbie Veares (18) exchanges words with Calum Heath (below).

Pics: Julianne Bonner

Losing run ends

FURY ended their seven-game losing streak but had to settle for just a point after letting a two-goal lead slip in their London derby on Saturday.

ENL Division 2
LEE VALLEY 4 ROMFORD 4

The visitors — 9-1 winners when the two sides met at Rom Valley Way in November — made a bright start, forcing George Alley into action before Sean Martin finally found the net.

Robin Turner doubled Romford's lead, but Gary Dodds hit back in the 17th minute.

David Dunnage made it 3-1, netting against his former club, but Dodds beat Alan Blyth for a second time before tempers boiled over.

Romford's Robbie Veares was hit with a 2+10 penalty after a clash with Calum Heath, while Lee Valley's Kwabina Oppong-Addai received a match penalty after a clash with Sam Crawford, who picked up a 2+10 penalty.

Dunnage grabbed his second goal of the game soon after to make it 4-2, but Lions piled on the pressure in the closing stanza and were back on terms with seven minutes remaining thanks to goals from Canadian import Blair Dubyk and Heath.

The home side thought they had claimed a winner at 58:28, but the 'goal' was waved off by referee Will Hewitt and honours finished even.

Fury will hope to build on their improving fortunes when they visit bottom club Streatham on Sunday (7pm).

Ethan heads off on

ROMFORD youngster Ethan James (left) flies out to Canada with England under-13s on Tuesday to take part in a prestigious tournament.

Goalie James, 11, has been chosen to represent his country at the World Pee-Wee Championships in Quebec where some of the sport's greatest players have competed in the past.

Mum Vanessa said: "Ethan is excited to be selected for the team, he is only 11 and we've been told it's rare for first years to be selected."