

Devils have too much for the Lions

LEE VALLEY Lions bagged five goals but still came out second best against Cardiff Devils at the weekend.

An early strike for the Welsh side inside three minutes did not auger well for the hosts, but Blair Dubyk's effort ten minutes later levelled the scores.

Two more goals for Cardiff were responded to once again by Dubyk to keep things interesting before the end of the first period.

The equaliser arrived when Shane Bojenko travelled the length of the ice and converted, holding his nerve impressively after bearing down on goal.

Penalties against the visitors gave the Lions hope that they could claim the lead, but they instead capitulated and conceded two short-handed goals in the space of just a few seconds.

Another strike stretched the deficit to three goals, leaving the home side with a mountain to climb.

However, James Scott-Joseph and Dubyk's third brought the team within a strike of parity.

But a decisive seventh goal arrived in the final period to kill off Lee Valley.

The team next travel to Kent to face the Invicta Mustangs.

