

JOHN BONNER, an alternative health practitioner, from Barking, hoped the days would become warmer.

The 36-year-old Lee Valley Lions supporter added: "Signs that spring is coming include more daffodils, more birds, sweet smells and happier people. The biggest sign for me is the end of the ice hockey season."

